STORYBOARDING SAMPLE

In this sequence, the father in the story is trying to convince his son's platonic but very sexy female friend to make an erotic pass at his son to "show" him he's really straight. But she knows his son better than that and imagines the humiliating debacle that would be.

Sneaky Dinosaurs

Storyboard for TV PSA for Dinosaur exhibit at Meridian Mall

Actor is chromo-keyed over pretaped backgrounds of photo blowups of Lansing locations. Dinosaurs are artwork cutouts, manipulated by hand.

Video:

Lansing skyline from Grand tower parking lot. Stegosaurus passes behind actor.

:05

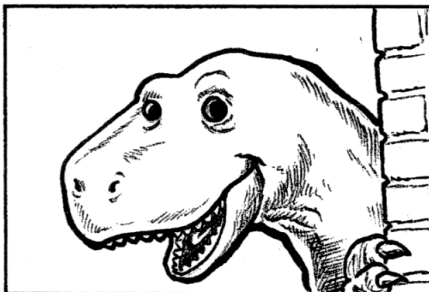

Grand River near Lansing Center. Brontosaurus swims by, actor doesn't notice.

:05

Capital building from north side. T-Rex peeks around corner of church. Actor still oblivious.

:05

Same background, but camera is zoomed in a bit to give closeup of T-Rex artwork. It's mouth moves like a puppet's as it talks.

:08

Knapps building downtown. Pteranodon flies by.

Audio:

Jurassic Security Systems, Investigators Log. I'm tracking 9 dinosaurs that escaped from the Kokoro dino-reconstruction lab in California. I've trailed them to the Lansing, Michigan area. But they're pretty sneaky for prehistoric lizards with brains the size of walnuts.

T-Rex:

You can see us at the Meridian Mall, October 18th through January 4th. Brought to you by Impression 5 Science Center, Meridian Mall and Potter Park zoo.

Actor:

They can't elude me for long!
